JANINE SERIO

Having been in the health and wellness profession for most, okay, ALL of my career, I wanted to share my passion of other lifestyle interests outside of the fitness, nutrition, and stress management arenas.

I wanted to showcase the side of me - my "good side" of course - who is a FOODIE, and loves trying out new restaurants, recipes, and products; a FASHIONISTA who keeps her closet & beauty regime on-point, and up-to-date, with the latest finds, as well as what's trending each season; a lover of planning and throwing a FABULOUS PARTY; and a TRAVEL guru who loves exploring the "Fit4Janine" lifestyle in other cities and countries.

And I may just have a love for a good cup of coffee and glass of wine!
